THE COACHES

WSU head coach Steve Kazor is in his third season as the Warrior bench boss. He has an 8-17 record at Wayne State with an overall collegiate head coaching mark of 33-34 in his seventh season.

Hillsdale's Keith Otterbein is in his first season as head coach at his alma mater following seven seasons as an assistant at Ball State. He compiled a 60-39-3 record in nine years (1986-1994) at Ferris State including three straight NCAA Division II playoff appearances.

THE SERIES

Hillsdale leads 31-11-1 in the all-time series despite the Warriors winning the last two meetings. Wayne State has recorded a 6-13 mark in games at Hillsdale. WSU's win in 2000 at HC snapped a 10-game losing skid for the Warriors in road games against the Chargers.

IN THE POLLS

The Warriors were selected 11th in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) preseason coaches poll. Hillsdale received 42 points in the GLIAC coaches preseason poll, which placed them ninth.

SCOUTING HILLSDALE

The Chargers (1-4, 1-3 GLIAC) lost their first two games (33-21 at Ferris State, and 24-17 vs. Indianapolis), before recording a 37-7 win over Ashland. Hillsdale lost the last two games, both on the road, 44-19 at Grand Valley, and 26-23 at Northern Michigan.

Kevin Clive has 566 yards rushing on 129 carries with seven touchdowns. Bill Skelton has completed 81 of 140 passes for 882 yards with six touchdowns and only two interceptions. Dan Musielewicz (21-253) and Blake Barisich (18-189, 2-TD) are Skelton's two favorite targets.

Free safety Mitch May has five interceptions, while WLB Rob North has a team-high 60 tackles.

ASHLAND GAME NOTES

Junior running back Craig Duppong became the first Warrior since the final game of the 2000 season to rush for more than 100 yards in a game. He had 164 yards on 22 carries (and no lost yardage), plus his first Warrior touchdown. Duppong's rushing yards was the most since Thabiti Williamson had 171 yards on 30 carries on Oct. 14, 2000, at Hillsdale.

Marqus Anthony led 10 WSU receivers with five receptions for 51 yards.

Senior linebacker Daniel Stuckey had 2.5 quarterback sacks for -14 yards against Ashland and three total tackles for -19 yards. He also forced a fumble and recovered two fumbles.

The Warrior defense allowed only 277 yards (48 rushing, 229 passing) to Ashland marking the first time in 13 games (since Sept. 8, 2001, at Ashland) that WSU had allowed less than 300 yards in a game.

Wayne State has allowed 104 total yards rushing in the last two games on 60 carries (1.73 yards per carry).

For the second consecutive game, the Warriors had more plays (74-68) and more total yards (360-277) than it allowed.

After having six turnovers in the first four games, Wayne State had seven turnovers against Ashland.

The Warriors did not allow a passing touchdown for the first time this season, and equalled a season-high with three quarterback sacks.

The six interceptions thrown by WSU quarterbacks were the most in a game during Steve Kazor's tenure in Detroit.

Head Coach Steve Kazor

Steve Kazor is in his seventh season as a collegiate head coach and third at the helm of the Warrior program. Prior to taking over the reins at Wayne State, Kazor compiled a 12-8 mark in two years as the head coach at McPherson College in Kansas.

His first head coaching position was at the College of Emporia in Kansas. From 1974-80 he worked at University of Texas at Arlington, Colorado State, Southern Utah, University of Texas at Austin, and University of Texas at El Paso.

In 1980 he accepted a position with the Dallas Cowboys. Following two seasons in Dallas, he joined Mike Ditka's Chicago Bears' staff. He worked 10 years with the Bears before taking the head coaching position at Iowa Wesleyan for the 1993 campaign. After recording an 8-3 record at IWC, Kazor spent three years with the Detroit Lions.

SERIES NOTES

Wayne State has won the last two meetings to snap a six-game losing streak against Hillsdale. Prior to the Warriors series win streak, the Chargers had won 14 of the previous 15 contests.

Last season, Wayne State won its annual Homecoming game despite trailing in first downs (24-9), total offense (401-172), rushing yards (119-10) and passing yards (282-162). The Warriors took a 6-0 lead when Pat Harwood scored on a two-yard carry with 1:56 remaining in the first half. The Chargers scored the next 10 points with the go-ahead score being set up by a mishandled punt attempt. WSU only trailed for 20 seconds as Earl Carruthers took the ensuing kickoff back 71 yards following a handoff from Jeff Roeschke. After another short HC punt, WSU went 45 yards in five plays for the winning score. Marqus Anthony caught Dan Gray's second and 10 pass for a 20-yard score. The Chargers drove 74-yards in seven plays in only 1:15 to pull within two at 19-17 with 2:47 left. Jeff Roeschke's 63-yard punt on third down was downed at Hillsdale's seven. HC went 73 yards in 16 plays to WSU's 20 before an illegal formation penalty. Blake Barisich's 42-yard field goal attempt on the final play was no good.

At Hillsdale in 2000, the Warriors snapped a 14-14 tie after 45 minutes by scoring twice in a span of 94 seconds for a 27-14 advantage. Pierre Brown scored both fourth quarter touchdowns on passes from Dan Gray.
