In the two meetings earlier this season, the teams tied in Detroit (2-2 OT), while Findlay won a 3-2 decision at home.

Wayne State University Head Coach Tom O'Malley

Tom O'Malley, the only head coach in the three-year history of women's hockey at Wayne State University, is in his 18th season as a collegiate head coach. Last year, O'Malley led the Warriors to five more victories than the inaugural season.

2001-02 Schedule

The Warriors schedule features four games (two at home, two away) against each of the other two members of Great Lakes Women's Hockey Association plus 22 non-conference contests.

The season concludes when Mercyhurst hosts the second GLWHA tournament on Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 23-24. WSU suffered a 4-1 setback to Findlay in last year's semifinal match.

Last Weekend

The Warriors split a non-conference road trip at Connecticut falling 6-1 on Friday before rebounding for a 4-3 overtime victory on Saturday to snap a 15-game (0-14-1) winless streak.

All five WSU goals on the weekend were scored by sophomores (Melissa Wenzel - 2, Katie Jones, Kelly Meech and Laurie Petchar).

In Friday's setback, Wayne State trailed 4-0 after the opening period and was outshot in the game 44-21. Goalie Tinna-Anne Thibideau made 38 saves with double-digit totals in each period.

In Saturday's come-from-behind triumph, the Warriors had leads of 1-0 and 2-1 before the Huskies scored two straight goals in the middle stanza for a 3-2 advantage. Petchar scored at the 8:36 mark of the third period to tie the game and WSU had to kill a late UConn power-play which lasted the first 35 seconds of overtime. Wenzel scored the game-winner at 2:12 of the extra session. The Huskies held a 47-28 advantage in shots with Thibideau stopping a career-high 44 in the overtime win.

Scoring By Class

Freshmen	6	18	36	54	51

Tough Competition

Wayne State has played nine games (four versus Mercyhurst, one vs. Brown, two at St. Lawrence and two at Northeastern) this season against teams currently ranked in the top 10 of the USCHO.com Division I Women's Poll.

Warrior Notes

Saturday's victory was the first for Wayne State when trailing after 40 minutes this season. WSU was 0-15-0 before the win.

The "road" Warriors have played 18 of their 28 games this season away from Detroit. WSU is 2-6-2 in 10 home contests.

WSU had a power-play goal each game at Connecticut marking just the second time this season, the Warriors had two power-play goals in a weekend (the previous occasion was Nov. 3-4 versus Yale when WSU scored two man-advantage markers in the Sunday afternoon contest).

Wayne State went 2-for-7 on the power play at Connecticut after scoring five power-play goals in the first 97 chances this season.

Melissa Wenzel had a goal each game this past weekend increasing her season total to three. All three lamp-lighters have come in the last six games since she was moved up front from the blueline. She had one goal in 52 previous games (before the last six contests).

Wenzel's overtime goal at Connecticut was the second overtime goal in WSU history. The first was scored on Oct. 13, 2000, by Serena Hillman in a 1-0 win at MSU-Mankato. Wenzel scored at 2:12 of the extra session while Hillman's goal came at the 2:32 mark.

Freshman Kelly Zamora had her third multiple-assist game of the season with two helpers on Saturday.

The four goals scored by the Warriors on Saturday is the second-highest game output this year (WSU had five goals on Oct. 14 vs. Vermont). Wayne State had four goals in two previous games this season.
